

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*INVERNESS GRAHAM II EXCEEDS $150M FUND RAISING TARGET

Philadelphia, PA, September 13, 2011 – Inverness Graham announced today that on Wednesday, August 31, 2011, Inverness Graham Investments II, L.P. (“Inverness Graham II”) held its final close, raising $151.5M. This total includes $10.0M allocated to a parallel co-investment vehicle. Inverness Graham is an operationally focused, lower middle market private equity firm headquartered in suburban Philadelphia.

“We are extremely pleased to have exceeded our fund raising goals in this market,” stated Ken Graham, Senior Managing Principal of Inverness Graham. “We have a very strong group of returning and new institutional Limited Partners including leading Endowments, Pension Funds and Fund of Funds in the U.S. and Europe that were attracted to our operational approach targeting highly innovative companies in the lower middle market.”

Skip Maner, Managing Principal & COO, added, “We continue to see great opportunities in the current market to deliver outsized returns through our time-tested formula of targeting differentiated companies in compelling growth niches - such as wireless & mobility, medical & healthcare, and energy & power – and bringing our extensive operating resources and heritage to bear to accelerate growth.”

Inverness Graham II has already consummated two platform investments and one add-on acquisition. These include medical components designer and manufacturer TechDevice, acquired in January 2011; Medical Profiles and Engineering, acquired by TechDevice in June 2011; and Aerospace and Defense supplier Nobles Manufacturing, acquired in April 2011.
